"I like beads as much as I like diamonds." -Drew Barrymore in InStyle, March 2005

ARTS AND CRAFTY: Designers love dressing Scarlett Johansson, but the actress is adorning herself these days. "I made my earrings," she admitted at the Los Angeles premiere of A Song for Bobby Long (right). "I started making jewelry with my sister recently. We got sick of spending $300. You have no idea how much money it saves. Plus, you get exactly what you want. It is a great activity for obsessive-compulsive people like me." . . .
