

scarf STYLE contest

GREATER ST. LOUIS KNIT-OUT & CROCHET 2005

SATURDAY & SUNDAY
SEPTEMBER 24-25, 2005
FAUST PARK, ST. LOUIS COUNTY PARKS
CHESTERFIELD, MO
10 A.M. TO 5 P.M. EACH DAY

ENTER THE GREATER ST. LOUIS KNIT-OUT AND CROCHET 2005 SCARF STYLE CONTEST benefiting Lydia's House and you could win a library of five popular knitting and crochet titles from Interweave Press, and more!

TO ENTER, design and create an original knit or crocheted scarf. Be creative: experiment with stitch patterns, colorwork, embroidery, yarns and any other special design elements to make the scarf uniquely your own.

WHERE YOUR SCARVES WILL BE DONATED Lydia's House works in faith to end domestic violence by being a place of healing and a voice of hope for abused women and their children. Founded in 1995 in St. Louis, Lydia's House is a non-profit agency and Missouri's largest provider of transitional housing and comprehensive, goal-oriented support services to abused women and their children.

CONTEST RULES 1. Contest is open to all ages, knitters and crocheters. 2. Bring your own finished scarf to the Scarf Style Contest table by 4 p.m. on Saturday, September 24 in Faust Park to the Knit-Out and Crochet Marquee. For information on how to drop off scarves in advance of that date, email: communicationsVP@stlouisknittersguild.com. 3. All entries must be an original design to win. Scarves created from patterns in the book Scarf Style will not be accepted. 4. The winners will be announced at 1 p.m. on Sunday, September 25, at the Knit-Out and Crochet Marquee.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO MAKE A SCARF AND DONATE IT to Lydia's House but not enter the contest, the Greater St. Louis Knit-Out & Crochet will be happy to accept the donation. Please bring scarves to the event. Adult- and children-sized scarves are welcome.

Winners who are not present will be contacted with instructions on how to pick up their prize. (If shipment is requested, the winner will be required to pay for shipment of any prize(s) won.) 5. The decisions of the judges will be final. 6. All scarves entered become the property of the Greater St. Louis Knit-Out and Crochet and will be donated to Lydia's House, a St. Louis organization. 7. Prizes are awarded as presented and cannot be redeemed for cash.

PRIZES

Grand Prize Winner

An Interweave Press library of five popular knitting and crochet titles and yarn goodie bag. Scarf will be featured in the Winter 2005 issue of Interweave Knits magazine online at www.interweave.com. Winners and runners-up also will be posted online at www.stlouisknittersguild.com

Runners-Up

Signed copies of Scarf Style and Wrap Style, knitting accessories, gift certificates, and more!

"An idea for a scarf design can come from anywhere, an irresistible yarn, a stitch pattern that appeals to you, a crocheted border you'd like to try, or perhaps a collection of beads that would make a wonderful fringe. Whatever your skill level or experience, there's no better way to develop confidence in your craft than to design and knit your own scarf."

—Pam Allen

Photos by Carol Kaplan

