

Knit a Ribbed Scarf with a Crocheted Edging

ANN BUDD

This springy scarf is modeled after one featured in Volume 6 of Weldon's Practical Needlework (Facsimile reproduction, Loveland, Colorado: Interweave Press, 2002). The original was worked in fingering-weight wool in two sections, each worked downward from the center back neck. I knitted this version in a DK-weight alpaca from one end to the other, eliminating the bulky join at the center neck. A few rows of eyelets followed by a fancy crochet edging widen the ends of the scarf and add a lacy touch to the sturdy ribbed pattern.

by Liz Gipson

Fiber: 5 ounce medium brown alpaca

Preparation: Combed

Drafting method: Short draw

Wheel: Louet Victoria

Singles direction: Z (clockwise)

Plied direction: S (counterclockwise)

Total yardage: 187 (5 ounces)

Yards per pound: 600

Wraps per inch: 13

Yarn classification: 2-ply worsted

Gauge: About 9 stitches and 12 rows=2 inches in stockinette stitch

Finished size: 6½ inches wide and 35 inches long.

Note: Because this is a worsted-style yarn and fairly dense, a short length is recommended so the scarf won't pull out of shape. See post on 10/6/2008 on knittingdaily.com for details about how this yarn was spun.
